

I support the ARRL's petition except that complete elimination of morse code as a requirement would be more appropriate. Morse code currently only serves as a rite of passage, this is no reason to maintain it as a requirement for the Amateur Extra class license.